

NEW SEASON, NEW SPIRIT

Let this heartfelt devotional help you reflect, renew and connect with God this Victoria Day long weekend.

REFLECTION

This weekend marks a fresh chapter not just on the calendar, but in the rhythm of our hearts. As nature blossoms around us, may we be reminded that God is always at work bringing beauty from the ordinary. Take a moment today to breathe deeply, observe the sky, the trees, the laughter around you. These simple gifts are holy ground.
